

Mentoring Workshop for Young African Women Economists

Organized at the Biannual Meeting of the African Economic Research Consortium (AERC), Dec 5th, 2011

Theme: Overcoming Challenges/Constraints Faced by African Women Economists

The workshop was successful and gained publicity—it was featured in the news column of The Daily Nation newspaper.

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Frannie A. Léautier (Native of Tanzania)
Executive Director, African Capacity Building Foundation

Panel Speakers

Professor Elizabeth Asiedu (Native of Ghana)
Department of Economics, University of Kansas Email: asiedu@ku.edu

Professor Elsabe Loots (Native of South Africa)
Professor of Economics and Dean of the Faculty of Economic and Management Sciences
Potchefstroom Campus, North-West University, South Africa
Email: elsabe.loots@nwu.ac.za

Dr. Mwanza Nkusu-Mulumba (Native of DCR)
Senior Economist, IMF, USA
Email: mnkusu@imf.org

Professor Una Okonkwo Osili (Native of Nigeria)
Associate Professor of Economics and Director of Research, The Center on Philanthropy,
Indiana University at Purdue, USA
Email: uosili@iupui.edu

Professor Juliet Elu (Native of Nigeria)
Professor of Economics, Morehouse College, USA
jelu@morehouse.edu

Dr. Jane Mariara (Native of Kenya)
Director, School of Economics, University of Nairobi
Email: jmariara@uonbi.ac.ke

Mrs. Esther Jepkemboi Koimett (Native of Kenya)
Investment Secretary, Ministry of Finance, Kenya
Email: ekoimett@treasury.go.ke

Breakdown of Participants (50 African Women): Number and Percentage

